What are Chevening Scholarships?

The UK Government's global scholarship programme, funded by the Foreign, Commonwealth, and Development Office (FCDO) and partner organisations.

Available in over 160 countries and territories, these scholarships support one-year master's degrees in any subject and at any UK university.

Who are Chevening scholarships aimed at?

Chevening Scholars are passionate about creating positive change in their home countries. They are good at building relationships, are resilient and determined, and have a short, mid and long-term plan for achieving their goals.

Chevening Scholars tend to rise to prominent positions in their countries, and in their chosen fields.

Eligibility criteria

In order to submit an eligible application, you must:

- Be a citizen of Pakistan
- Already have an undergraduate degree
- Have at least two years' work experience
- Not have previously received UK government funding to study in the UK

Before being awarded a scholarship, selected candidates must also hold an unconditional offer from at least one of their three course choices.

A Chevening scholarship covers:

- Fully covered* tuition fees
- A living allowance at a set rate (for one individual)
- An economy return flight to the UK
- Additional grants to cover essential expenditure

* There is a global Chevening fee cap of around £22,000 for MBAs

Benefits of a Chevening scholarship include:

1. Chevening Scholars are also invited to a vast programme of exclusive networking events, talks, trips across the UK, and volunteering opportunities.
2. On graduating, scholars join around 55,000 other Chevening Alumni who together form an influential and highly regarded global network.

Other exclusive opportunities in recent years have included:

- Internships at the BBC World Service
- Volunteering opportunities
- Chevening Relay competition

The Chevening Alumni community

Chevening has been running since 1983 and Chevening Alumni form the backbone of the programme.

Numbering around 55,000 worldwide, our alumni constitute a highly-regarded global network of skilled professionals working in a range of fields, including helping to tackle climate change, championing gender equality, working in journalism, business, law, and many other fields.
